F. [Insert name, age, date of birth, school arrangements and health]

G. and separated on and the de facto relationship had broken down irretrievably on that date. The parties have lived separately and apart since that date and in their opinion there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed.

H. In order to arrange their property affairs and avoid litigation the parties have agreed to enter into this agreement under the provisions of section 90UD of the Family Law Act 1975 to deal with the division of their property, and their financial resources.

I. In the event that spousal maintenance has not been provided for in this agreement it is due to the fact that the parties have considered sections 90SE and 90SF of the Family Law Act 1975 and agree that in the circumstances neither party needs the other to maintain them.

J. The parties intend the terms of this agreement to be given effect by any court
